

III. Stock maintenance System.

i) Warehouse:

1. warehouse location and details.
2. product / availability details.
3. staff details.
4. Supplier details.

ii) Supplier:

1. Supplier details.
2. availability

iii) Product:

1. product details
2. product availability / warehouse details.
3. product manufacture & expiry details.

iv) Stocks:

1. Stock classification based on products.
2. Stock at different warehouse.

v) Orders:

1. order details.
2. track order.
3. Stock.
4. amount.

The stock maintenance system is basically for the customers who access the information about the stock & retrieves the information. The stock maintenance system is to replace the existing maintenance system which is inefficient. The new stock maintenance system will allow the employee to record information of the products available in the store.